The Code of Conduct for Members of London Borough of Enfield

A. Purpose of the Code

1. The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to assist you in the discharge of your obligations to the Authority, the local communities and the public at large by:
 - a) setting out the standards of conduct that are expected of you when you are acting in that capacity, and in so doing
 - b) providing the openness and accountability necessary to reinforce public confidence in the way in which you perform those activities.
2. The Code applies equally to co-opted members of Council Committees who are entitled to vote on any issues coming before those committees.

B. Scope of the Code

3. The Code applies to you in all aspects of your activities as a member, including when acting on Authority business, ward business or when otherwise purporting to act as a member. It does not seek to regulate what you do in your purely private and personal lives.
4. The obligations set out in this Code are also complementary to related Codes and Protocols of the Authority within the Council's Constitution and elsewhere.
5. References to committees or meetings of the Authority within this Code also refer to Council, Cabinet, sub-committees, panels and working groups, as well as joint-committees.

C. Public Duties of Members

6. You have a duty to uphold the law, including the general law against discrimination and the requirements of the Localism Act, and to act on all occasions in accordance with the public trust placed in you.
7. You have an overriding duty to act in the interests of the London Borough of Enfield's area as a whole, but also have a special duty to represent the views of the residents and communities of your ward.

D. General Principles of Conduct

8. In carrying out your duties, in exercising the functions of the Authority, or otherwise acting as a Councillor, you will be expected to observe the following general principles of conduct. These principles will be taken into consideration when any allegation is received of breaches of the provisions of the Code.

8.1 Selflessness

You should take decisions solely in terms of the public interest. You should not seek to gain financial or other material benefits for yourself, your family, or friends.

8.2 Integrity

You should not place yourself under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might influence you in the performance of your official duties.

8.3 Objectivity

In carrying out public business, including making public appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits, you should make choices on merit.

8.4 Accountability

You are accountable for your decisions and actions to the public and must submit yourself to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to your office.

8.5 Openness

You should be as open as possible about all the decisions and actions that you take. You should give reasons for your decisions and restrict information only when the wider public interest clearly demands.

8.6 Honesty

You have a duty to declare any private interests relating to your public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest.

8.7 Leadership

You should promote and support these principles by leadership and example.

8.8 Respect for Others

You should promote equality by not discriminating unlawfully against any person, and by treating people with respect, regardless of their race, age, religion, gender, sexual orientation or disability. You should respect the impartial role of the authority's statutory officers, and its other employees.

8.9 Duty to Uphold the Law

You should uphold the law and, on all occasions, act in accordance with the trust that the public is entitled to place in you.

8.10 Stewardship

You should do whatever you are able to do to ensure that the Authority uses its resources prudently and in accordance with the law.

E. Expectations of Conduct

9. You shall base your conduct on a consideration of the public interest, avoid conflict between personal interest and the public interest and resolve any conflict between the two, at once, and in favour of the public interest.
10. You shall at all times ensure that your use of expenses, allowances, facilities and services provided from the public purse is strictly in accordance with the rules laid down on these matters, and that you observe any limits placed by the Authority on the use of such expenses, allowances, facilities and services.
11. You shall at all times conduct yourself in a manner which will maintain and strengthen the public's trust and confidence in the integrity of the Authority and never undertake any action which would bring the Authority, you or other members or officers generally, into disrepute.

 - (b) made in good faith and in compliance with the reasonable requirements of the authority
 - (5) You must not prevent another person from gaining access to information to which that person is entitled by law.
 - (6) You should not conduct yourself in a manner which could reasonably be regarded as bringing your office or authority into disrepute.
13. You shall observe the following rules when using the resources of the Authority, or authorising the use of those resources by others:

You shall fulfil conscientiously the requirements of the Authority in respect of the registration of interests in the Register(s) of Members' Interests and, where it is required or appropriate to do so, shall always draw attention to any relevant interest in any proceeding of the Authority or its Committees, or in any communications with the Authority, its Members or officers.
16. Such disclosures must be made even if the interest has already been included on the register of interests or where there is a notification pending to the Monitoring Officer.
17. In accordance with this Code, you must keep the register up-to-date and refresh such interests as requested by the Monitoring Officer.
18. These interests extend to those of your spouse, civil partner, family members or persons with whom you have a close association or personal relationship and you are aware that they have the interest.

H. Duties in respect of the Authority's Councillor Conduct Committee and the Monitoring Officer

19. The application and guidance on this Code shall be a matter for the Authority and for the Councillor Conduct Committee and, as appropriate, the Monitoring Officer, acting in accordance with their terms of reference.

Registration, Disclosure and Duties on Interests held by Members and Co-Opted Members of the London Borough of Enfield

I. Registration of Interests

1. You must comply with the requirements of the law and the Council in registering your interests in the Register of Members' Interests. These are explained on the following pages. These interests extend to those of your spouse, civil partner, family members or persons with whom you have a close association or personal relationship.

2. Apply the following test of bias when considering registering or disclosing any pecuniary interests:

“Would a member of the public, with knowledge of the relevant facts, reasonably regard your interest as so significant that it is likely to prejudice your judgement of the public interest? “

If the answer to this question is “yes”, then you should disclose that interest.

3. Within 28 days of becoming a member of the Authority, you must notify the Monitoring Officer of any disclosable pecuniary interests you have at that time. You must also draw attention to any relevant interest, where it is required or appropriate to do so, in any proceeding of the Council or its Committees with which you are involved or in any communications with any colleague, officer or outside body in your role as a member. Such disclosures must be made even if the interest has already been included in the register of interests or where there is a notification pending to the Monitoring Officer.
4. You should approach the Authority's Monitoring Officer if you feel that your interest should be treated as sensitive because it could lead to you, or a person connected with you, being subject to violence or intimidation. If it is agreed that you have such an interest, you will be obliged to register it but details will not be disclosed in the published version of the register. Similarly, when at a meeting, you only need to state the fact that you have a disclosable interest, and not details of the interest itself.

Part B: Other Pecuniary Interests

- [Other financial interests (if any) that would qualify as grounds for bias in an application to quash a decision of the Authority]

Part C: Other Non-Pecuniary Interests

- [Other interests that would qualify as grounds for bias in an application to quash a decision of the Authority]

[Part D: Register of Gifts and Hospitality]

You shall comply with the Council's agreed policy on gifts and hospitality and disclose to the Monitoring Officer the offer or receipt of any gift or hospitality with an estimated value of £25 or more. Offers made but refused must also be disclosed.

J. Disclosure and Duties in Respect of Interests Held by Members

1. Declaration of interests not included in the Register

- 1.1 If you have an interest in a matter under discussion at a meeting of the authority and are aware of that interest, you must disclose the interest to the meeting (unless the Authority's Monitoring Officer considers that it is a sensitive interest – see paragraph I 3 of this Code)
- 1.2 You must notify the Authority's Monitoring Officer of the interest before the end of 28 days beginning with the date of the disclosure (unless it is subject of a pending notification)
- 1.3 You must then act in accordance with paragraph 2 below.

2. Disclosable Pecuniary Interests

- 2.1 Where you
 - (a) are present at a meeting of the authority and
 - (b) have, or become aware that you have, a disclosable pecuniary interest in any matter to be considered, or being considered, at the meeting,you must
 - (c) not participate, or participate further, in any discussion of the matter at the meeting
 - (d) not participate in any vote, or further vote, taken on the matter at the meeting
 - (e) leave the room until the conclusion of the matter under discussion
- 2.2 Where you are an executive member taking a portfolio decision and are aware you have a disclosable pecuniary interest, you must notify the Monitoring Officer of that interest within 28 days and take no action in respect of the matter other than refer to another executive member to take the decision.
- 2.3 Where you have taken a portfolio decision that is subsequently discussed at a meeting of the authority, you must not try to influence the outcome of that discussion or take any further part in the proceedings unless answering questions to facilitate those discussions

- 2.4 If you have a disclosable pecuniary interest in a matter coming before a meeting of the authority, you can make a written request to the Monitoring Officer beforehand for a dispensation, which may allow you to participate in the discussion and vote.

A dispensation may be granted in the following circumstances:

- (a) where members of the decision making body have disclosable pecuniary interests in a matter that would “impede the transaction of the business”
- (b) that without the dispensation, the representation of different political groups on the body conducting the business would be so upset as to alter the outcome of any vote on the matter
- (c) that the authority considers that the dispensation is in the interest of persons living in the authority’s area
- (d) that the authority considers that it is otherwise appropriate to grant a dispensation.

Any grant of dispensation must specify how long it will last, up to a maximum of 4 years.

Dispensations under (a) and (b) above shall be decided by the Monitoring Officer, with the right of appeal to the Councillor Conduct Committee. Those in (c) and (d) shall be considered by the Councillor Conduct Committee, after consultation with the Independent Person(s).

- 2.5 Failing to act in respect of disclosable pecuniary interests is a criminal offence.
- 2.6 If you fail to comply with the Code of Conduct (whether or not the finding is made in accordance with the Council’s agreed arrangements) the Authority may have regard to that failure in deciding:
- (a) whether to take action in relation to you, and
 - (b) what action to take.
