Dear Ms Ezgi Bolat

Licensing Act 2003

Premises : News & Chews, 10 Colman Parade, Southbury Road, ENFIELD, EN1 1YY

This letter concerns the application for a New Application Premises Licence under the Licensing Act 2003.

Please find the licence enclosed. Please check the details on the licence carefully, the Licensing Authority is prepared to correct any of our clerical errors within 28 days of the licence being issued.

Note - Transfers

On the grant of a transfer application, any notification or permit (under the Gambling Act 2005) in respect of gaming machines at the premises becomes null and void. A new notification or permit will need to be sought by the new holder of the premises licence (under the Licensing Act 2003) before gaming machines may be lawfully provided at the premises.

Please be advised that the licence does not override any restrictions on trading hours etc. that may apply to the premises in respect of planning permission and/or Sunday trading & etc.

The terms, conditions and restrictions of the licence must be complied with whenever the premise is used for licensable activities. Failure to comply with the licence is a criminal offence with, on conviction, a maximum fine of £20,000 and/or up to 6 months imprisonment.

The Licensing Enforcement Team advise as follows

In order to support premises in meeting the conditions of their licence, the Licensing Authority has produced material such as training guidance, leave quietly signs, refusals book, which can be found on the Enfield website by following this link:

http://www.enfield.gov.uk/downloads/download/2316/compliance_documents

Please print the material relevant to the conditions and use in accordance with your licence.

Please be advised that a premises licence lapses if the holder of the licence : dies; becomes a person who lacks capacity (within the meaning of the Mental Capacity Act 2005) to hold the licence; becomes insolvent; is dissolved; or if it is a club, ceases to be a recognised club. An individual becomes insolvent on : the approval of a voluntary arrangement proposed by him; being adjudged bankrupt or having his estate sequestrated; or entering into a deed of arrangement made for the benefit of his creditors or a trust deed for his creditors. A company becomes insolvent on : the approval of a voluntary arrangement proposed by its directors; the appointment of an administrator in respect of the company; the appointment of an administrative receiver in respect of the company; or going into liquidation.

The licence, or a certified copy of it, must be kept on the premises at all times and must be produced on request to any authorised officer. The summary of the licence must be prominently displayed within the premises.

The London Fire Brigade advise as follows :

The issue of capacity should be addressed in the fire risk assessment for the premises use. This does not mean that every premises must have a capacity figure. There should be evidence however that the responsible person has considered the number of persons who can be safely evacuated through the available exits.

A safe capacity figure will be expected in the following circumstances:

- (1) in premises that could potentially become overcrowded; for example bars, pubs, clubs, and other places of public assembly :
- (2) where an engineered solution or BS 9999 has been used to increase capacity;
- (3) where capacity is risk-critical; for example where the premises use has a higher occupancy factor than that which the building was designed for.

Where applicable, capacity should normally be inclusive of staff and performers. Management should be able to demonstrate a realistic method of controlling capacity.

Should you wish to change the operation of the premises in the future by adding new licensable activities or by changing the hours or removing conditions then you will need to apply for a variation of the licence. Please contact us for further advice.

You must notify the licensing authority of any change in the name and/or address of either the premises licence holder or the designated premises supervisor.

The licence is subject to an annual fee, payable on each anniversary of the licence first being granted.

Please be advised that if you are playing music in your business – to staff or customers – it is a legal requirement to obtain permission from the copyright holders. Two organisations exist to help make sure you are correctly licensed to play the music you want. PPL collects royalties on behalf of performers and record companies. PRS for Music collects royalties on behalf of songwriters, composers and music publishers. In most instances, a licence from both organisations is needed to ensure all copyright holders are correctly paid for the use of their music. If you play music in your business, please contact PPL and PRS for Music to obtain the right licences for you. Please visit ppluk.com and prsformusic.com for more information on music licensing or call PPL on 020 7534 1095 and PRS for Music on 0800 068 4828.

All employers have a responsibility to prevent illegal migrant working in the UK. Failure to comply could lead to a penalty of up to £10,000 per illegal worker. Home Office guidance is available at www.ukba.homeoffice.gov.uk/employers/preventillegalworking/

If you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely
