TAKE NOTICE that under the provisions of the Environmental Protection Act 1990 the Council of the London Borough of Enfield, being satisfied of the [existence] [likely [occurrence], recurrence]] of a noise amounting to a statutory nuisance under section [79(1) (g)] of the above Act at:

amplified

HEREBY REQUIRE YOU as the [person responsible for the said nuisance] [owner] [occupier] of the premises, from which the noise is or would be emitted FORTHWITH [within days] from the service of this notice, to abate the same, and also HEREBY PROHIBIT the recurrence of the same and for that purpose require you to:

Exercise proper control of the volume of amplified music.

In the event of an appeal this notice shall NOT be suspended until the appeal has been abandoned or decided by the Court, as, in the opinion of the Council, the nuisance to which this notice relates is [likely to be of a limited duration such that suspension would render the notice of no practical effect] [the expenditure which would be incurred by any person in carrying out works in compliance with this notice before any appeal has been decided would not be disproportionate to the public benefit to be expected in that period from such compliance]. [injurious to health]

IF without reasonable excuse you contravene or fail to comply with any requirement of this notice you will be guilty of an offence under section 80 (4) of the Environmental Protection Act 1990 and on summary conviction will be liable to a fine together with a further fine of an amount equal to one-tenth of the greater of £5000 or level 4 on the standard scale for each day on which the offence continues after conviction. A person who commits an offence on industrial, trade or business premises will be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine. Alternatively you may be served with a Fixed Penalty Notice if you breach this abatement notice.

The Council may take proceedings in High Court for securing the abatement, prohibition or restriction of the nuisance. Further, if you fail to execute all or any of the works in accordance with this notice, the Council may execute the works and recover from you the necessary expenditure incurred.
