Section 18 of 21

LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

Staff will be trained with regard to their responsibilities in the retail sale of alcohol and licence conditions and the measures necessary for compliance with those conditions. A record should be made of the training provided and this record shall be made available to Police and authorised officers of the Licensing Authority.

The event hall at the premises shall only be used for licensable activity under a private hire agreement and in accordance with a set of terms and conditions for such hire.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

A digital CCTV system must be installed in the premises complying with the following criteria:

1. Cameras must be sited to observe the entrance and exit doors both inside and outside, the alcohol displays and floor areas.
2. Cameras on the entrances must capture full frame shots of the heads and shoulders of all people entering the premises i.e. capable of identification.
3. Cameras viewing till areas must capture frames not less than 50% of screen.
4. Cameras overlooking floor areas should be wide angled to give an overview of the premises.
5. Cameras must capture a minimum of 16 frames per second.
6. Be capable of visually confirming the nature of the crime committed.
7. Provide a linked record of the date, time and place of any image.
8. Provide good quality images – colour during opening times.
9. Operate under existing light levels within and outside the premises.
10. Have the recording device located in a secure area or locked cabinet.
11. Have a monitor to review images and recorded picture quality.
12. Be regularly maintained to ensure continuous quality of image capture and retention.
13. Have signage displayed in the customer area to advise that CCTV is in operation.
14. Digital images must be kept for 31 days.
15. Police will have access to images at any reasonable time.
16. The equipment must have a suitable export method, e.g. CD/DVD writer so that the police can make an evidential copy of the data they require. This data should be in the native file format, to ensure that no image quality is lost when making the copy. If this format is nonstandard (i.e. manufacturer proprietary) then the manufacturer should supply the replay software to ensure that the video on the CD can be replayed by the police on a standard computer. Copies must be made available to Police on request.

The need to utilise door supervisors will be risk assessed according to the type of event being held at the premises.

Where door supervisors are used at the premises at least one door supervisor shall remain directly outside the premises for 30 minutes after the premises has closed or until all customers have dispersed. The duties of these staff will include the supervision of persons entering and leaving the premises to ensure that this is achieved without causing a nuisance. All door supervisors (or marshals) shall be easily identifiable by wearing high visibility jackets or armbands.

A log must be kept indicating the date and times door supervisors sign in and out for duty and must include clearly printed details of each door supervisor's name, SIA licence number, employer, and the duty they are employed to carry out on any particular night.

Drinking vessels shall be made of toughened glass or plastic and shall be designed not to have a sharp edge when broken.

An incident log shall be kept at the premises, and made available on request to an authorised officer of the Council or the Police, which will record the following:

- (a) all crimes reported to the venue
- (b) all ejections of patrons
- (c) any complaints received
- (d) any incidents of disorder
- (e) any faults in the CCTV system

(f) any visit by a relevant authority or emergency service

Customers shall not be permitted to remove glassware from the premises.

The premises shall adopt a 'zero tolerance' policy in respect of illegal drugs and other illegal substances. Signage will be displayed at the premises to advise customers of this policy. The policy will include details relating to the handling, storage, seizure and disposal of illegal drugs and other illegal substances, and also include actions to be taken to involve the police when drugs issues arise.

c) Public safety

Staff shall be trained in respect of the Fire Risk Assessment and Health and Safety risk assessment.

First Aid facilities shall be maintained at the premises.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Windows and doors at the premises shall remain closed after 23.00hrs on any given day, with the exception of access and egress to and from the premises.

Notices shall be prominently displayed at the exit requesting patrons to leave the area quietly.

Notices shall be prominently displayed at the outside area immediately in front of the premises requesting patrons who are smoking, to use the area quietly.

The licence holder shall ensure that the smoking area immediately in front of the premises is supervised so as to ensure there is no public nuisance.

Loudspeakers shall not be located in the entrance lobby or outside the premises building.

The premises shall display details of late night transport options to facilitate the dispersal of persons from the area.

e) The protection of children from harm

The premises licence holder shall operate a "Challenge 25" scheme at the premises whereby anyone who appears to be under the age of 25 is asked to provide proof of age that he or she is over 18. Acceptable ID shall be as per Home Office guidelines.

Suitable signage shall be displayed at the point of entry and at the service area advising customers that the premises operates the "Challenge 25" proof of age scheme.

There shall be no entry to the premises to persons under the age of 18 years after 23.00hrs on any given day with the exception of persons who are under the direct supervision of their Parent(s) or Guardian(s) and then only when attending a specific family function / celebration at the premises.
