

APPENDIX A : OLDER PERSON HOUSING & CARE MODELS

Level of Care	Accommodation Type	Definition
Low	Sheltered Housing	Self-contained accommodation for older people (usually over 60 years)  Sheltered Housing may have staff on site that provide concierge-type services.
	Extra Care Housing	Self-contained accommodation for older people (usually over 60 years) in a setting where care &amp; support can be provided 24/7 from an on-site care provider.
	Residential Care	Private or shared en-suite rooms within a care facility. All residents will receive domestic care and some degree of personal care.
	Nursing Care	Private or shared en-suite rooms within a care facility. All residents will receive domestic care, personal and nursing care.
High		