

Flu vaccine update Enfield

26th Nov 2020

www.enfield.gov.uk

Striving for excellence

Comparison of Flu uptake by risk group

Risk group	England	London	Enfield
	2019/20	2019/20	2019/20	2020 Sept to Nov
65+	72.4	66.2	65.5	53.6
6 months to under 65 years at-risk	44.9	41.8	39.2	29.5
Pregnant women	43.7	39.2	34.1	21.5
All 2 year olds (combined)	43.4	32.2	26.1	35.0

- Generally, Enfield has low flu uptake compared with England
- In Enfield, Roughly 2/3rd of 65+ population had the flu vaccine last year (Sept 2019 until March 2020)
- This year, more than half of 65+ age group had the vaccine by 21st November

Enfield summary:

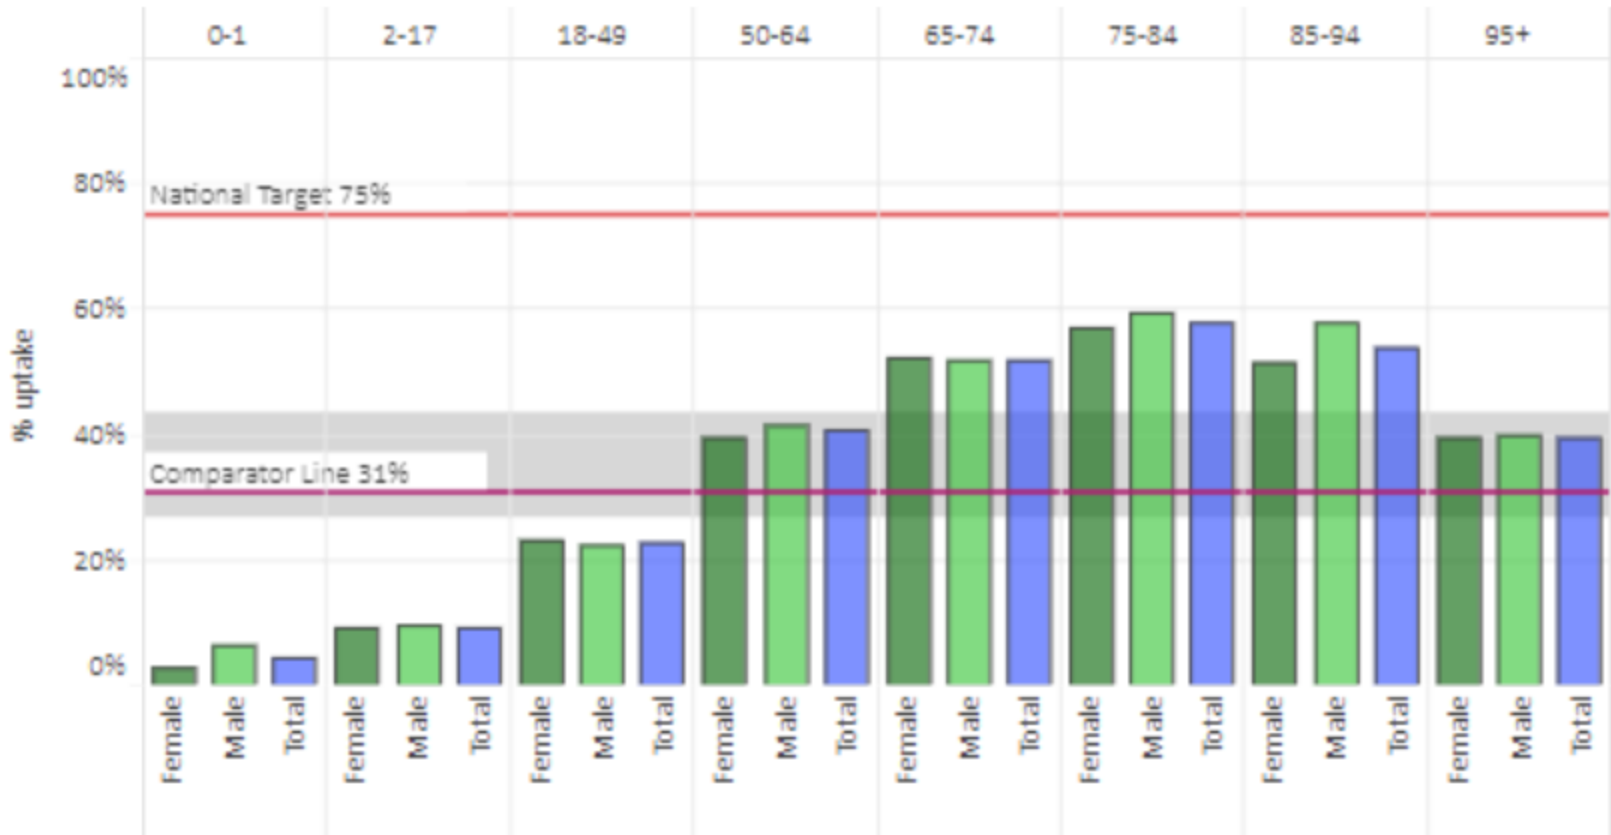

- As at 21st November, nearly 41,000 residents (31% of eligible cohort) had the flu vaccine via GP practices.
- Over half of people age over 65 had the vaccine.
- Low uptake among children age 4- 11 and pregnant women.

Flu Vaccination Eligible Cohorts

This table shows the flu vaccination uptake by eligible cohort. The release schedule for the remaining eligible cohorts can be found in the User Guide (information button).

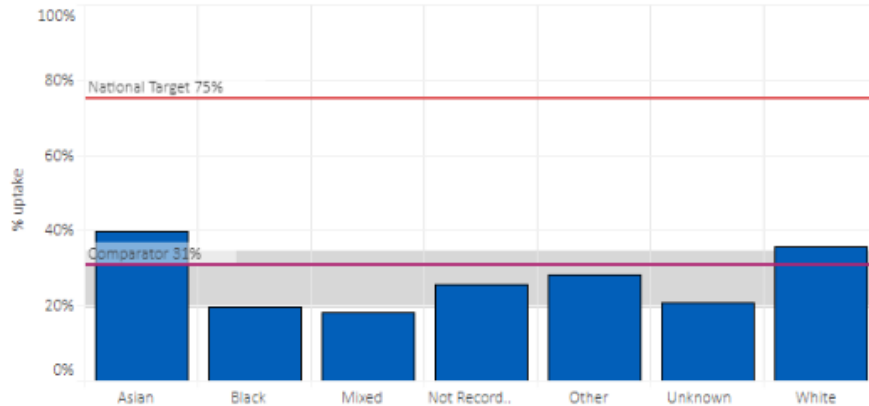

Eligible Cohort	Number Vaccinated	% Uptake	Number Remaining to Target	Number Declined
6 months to 64 years in a clinical risk group	11,510	29.5%	17,792	2,105
65 years or older	24,865	53.6%	9,923	2,534
Children 2-3	3,201	35.0%	3,666	851
Children 4-11	1,179	3.0%	28,098	279
CQC Registered Care Home or Nursing Home Resident	720	48.2%	399	69
Learning Disability	498	32.7%	643	59
Pregnant women	449	21.5%	1,115	104
Total for all eligible groups	40,617	30.8%	58,317	5,742

Percentage uptake by age and gender

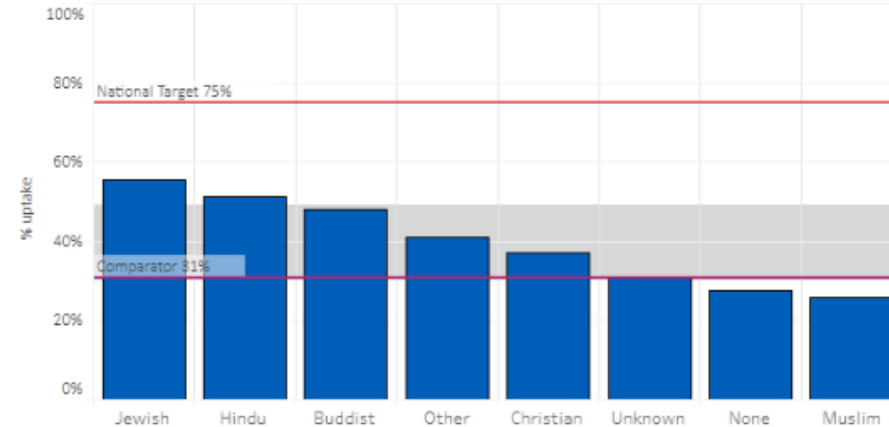

Flu vaccine uptake by ethnicity and religion

% uptake by ethnicity

The chart above shows % uptake split by ethnicity. To drill down select the + symbol which appears when hovering on the x axis. To return to the main category select - symbol which appears when hovering on the main categories. This chart acts as a filter to other charts.

% uptake by religion

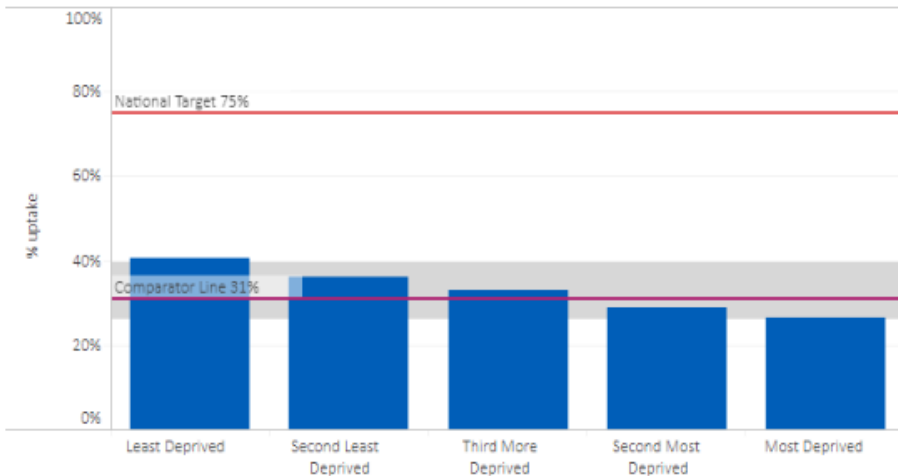

The chart above shows % uptake split by religion. To drill down select the + symbol which appears when hovering on the x axis. To return to the main category select - symbol which appears when hovering on the main categories. This chart acts as a filter to other charts.

- Ethnicity: High uptake among White and Asians.
- Ethnicity: Low uptake among Black and Mixed groups.
- Religion: High uptake among Jewish, Hindu and Buddhist groups.
- Religion: Low uptake among Muslim community.

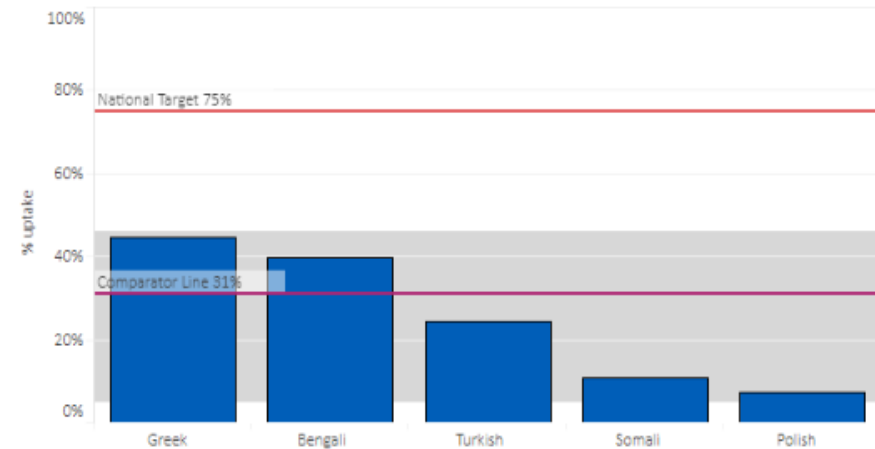

Flu vaccine uptake by deprivation and first language spoken

% uptake by deprivation

The chart above shows % uptake split by index of multiple deprivation (IMD) quintile. This chart acts as a filter to other charts.

% uptake by first language spoken (excl. English)

The chart above shows % uptake for the top 5 first language spoken by eligible persons. English has been excluded. This chart acts as a filter to other charts.

- Deprivation: High uptake in least and 2nd least deprived areas.
- Deprivation: Low uptake in most deprived areas.
- Language spoken: High uptake among Greek and Bengali community
- Language spoken: Low uptake among Turkish, Somali and Polish community.

Actions

- Coordinated by ICP Flu Workstream (Chair Dr Hetul Shah)
- Primary Care – care homes, BEH – house bound, Pharmacies – care home staff
- GP call recall system – focus to date on >65s and at risk grps
- 1st Dec >50s
- PCNs providing extra capacity flu clinics
- NCL CCG led communications plan
 - All borough comms teams engaged
 - Including leaflets – foodbanks, rent statements
 - Engagement with Turkish and Somali communities
 - Webinars – parents networks, faith forum, public via Health Watch
 - Social Media – NHSE, NCL bespoke

Actions continued

- Homeless cohort added to eligible list for pharmacies
- Vaccine hesitancy training for staff
- Engagement with NMUH re low uptake among pregnant women
- Primary school & Y7 – weekend/ holiday clinics, return to schools following self isolation, individual phone calls to parents who decline/ accept alternative vaccine.