DECISION
AGREED: that the following decision will come into effect on Monday 20 July 2020, subject to not being called in: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Until such time as the Business and Planning Act 2020 comes into force, tables and chairs licences will be issued as temporary street trading licences under the under the existing London Local Authorities Act 1990 with a fee set at £100. The period to determine the licence application will be the same as the Business and Planning Act 2020 (14 calendar days) and licences run to 30 September 2021 with the same standard licence conditions as per Appendix A. 2. Approval of the licence application fee of £100 (maximum permitted in the Act) for pavement licences under the Business and Planning Act 2020. 3. Agreed that pavement licences under the Business and Planning Act 2020 will usually be issued up to 30 September 2021 (the maximum time period allowed in the Act), unless due to representations or otherwise a shorter period is considered more appropriate.
ALTERNATIVE OPTIONS CONSIDERED:
There are no alternative options. The Act allows businesses to apply for pavement licences which must be accepted and determined by the Council.
REASONS FOR RECOMMENDATIONS
The Act comes into force after 20 July 2020, but provision is made under the existing legislation on the same terms of the Act to allow tables and chairs licences before this. This is so that business can secure these licences in time for the summer. The purpose of these time limited pavement licences is to support businesses to recover following Covid lockdown allowing customers to be seated inside and outside of the premises to consume food and drink, and also to ensure our high streets become more vibrant and welcoming places for our residents to visit.
